Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow.

The bell of the ice-cream seller was one of the most anticipated sounds in most of our childhoods. As soon as Gagan Anand would hear the bell back in the 90s, he would rush to his mother to borrow ₹1, run behind the ice-cream man down the roads of Jharkhand (then Bihar). Other summer treats included 'barf-ka-gola'.

The youngest of four siblings, Gagan grew up in a middle-class home with lofty dreams of becoming an actor. However, his father retired when he had just completed Class 10, which propelled him towards making his own life through sheer hard work. With ₹1,200 in his pocket, he moved to New Delhi to pursue acting at just 16. He soon realised that making a name for yourself in this field was rather difficult.

Starting as a part-time team member at 17 after completing his Class 12, the ambitious young man rose through the ranks to become a restaurant general manager at 21. From there on, he worked with international and Indian brands for over 18 years before deciding to build a company himself. And the business idea was a no-brainer. It had to be something in ice-cream – but with a twist.

Launched in September 2020, 'Scuzo Ice-O-Magic', serves 'live' popsicles and gelato. Over the past four years, the company has grown to having over 30 stores across the country with a turnover of ₹8 crores in the last financial year 2023-24.

Option 4 ID : 4410094198545

Comprehension:

Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow.

The bell of the ice-cream seller was one of the most anticipated sounds in most of our childhoods. As soon as Gagan Anand would hear the bell back in the 90s, he would rush to his mother to borrow ₹1, run behind the ice-cream man down the roads of Jharkhand (then Bihar). Other summer treats included 'barf-ka-gola'.

The youngest of four siblings, Gagan grew up in a middle-class home with lofty dreams of becoming an actor. However, his father retired when he had just completed Class 10, which propelled him towards making his own life through sheer hard work. With ₹1,200 in his pocket, he moved to New Delhi to pursue acting at just 16. He soon realised that making a name for yourself in this field was rather difficult.

Starting as a part-time team member at 17 after completing his Class 12, the ambitious young man rose through the ranks to become a restaurant general manager at 21. From there on, he worked with international and Indian brands for over 18 years before deciding to build a company himself. And the business idea was a no-brainer. It had to be something in ice-cream – but with a twist.

Q. From the given stanzas, identify the stanza taken from 'Ode to the West Wind'
2 written by PB Shelley.

A ns 1. "Better than all measures

Of delightful sound,
Better than all treasures
That in books are found,
Thy skill to poet were, thou scorner of the ground!"

2. "One from a lucid urn of starry dew

Washed his light limbs as if embalming them;
Another clipped her profuse locks, and threw
The wreath upon him, like an anadem,
Which frozen tears instead of pearls begem;
Another in her wilful grief would break
Her bow and winged reeds, as if to stem
A greater loss with one which was more weak;
And dull the barbed fire against his frozen cheek."

3. "Make me thy lyre, even as the forest is:

What if my leaves are falling like its own!
The tumult of thy mighty harmonies.
Will take from both a deep, autumnal tone,
Sweet though in sadness. Be thou, Spirit fierce,
My spirit! Be thou me, impetuous one!"

4. "Higher still and higher

From the earth thou springest
Like a cloud of fire;
The blue deep thou wingest,
And singing still dost soar, and soaring ever singest."

Q. To whom does Shakespeare address in the given sonnet?

When, in disgrace with fortune and men's eyes,
I all alone bewep my outcast state,
And trouble deaf heaven with my bootless cries,
And look upon myself and curse my fate,
Wishing me like to one more rich in hope,
Featured like him, like him with friends possessed,
Desiring this man's art and that man's scope,
With what I most enjoy contented least;
Yet in these thoughts myself almost despising,
Haply I think on thee, and then my state,
(Like to the lark at break of day arising
From sullen earth) sings hymns at heaven's gate;
For thy sweet love remembered such wealth brings
That then I scorn to change my state with kings.

'To that high Capital, where kingly Death
Keeps his pale court in beauty and decay,
He came; and bought, with price of purest breath,
A grave among the eternal. -Come away!
Haste, while the vault of blue Italian day
Is yet his fitting charnel-roof! while still
He lies, as if in dewy sleep he lay;
Awake him not! surely he takes his fill
Of deep and liquid rest, forgetful of all ill.'

Q. From the given stanzas, identify the stanzas taken from 'Ode to a Grecian Urn' written by John Keats.

A ns 1. "But when the melancholy fit shall fall

Sudden from heaven like a weeping cloud,
That fosters the droop-headed flowers all,
And hides the green hill in an April shroud;
Then glut thy sorrow on a morning rose,
Or on the rainbow of the salt sand-wave,
Or on the wealth of globed peonies ..."

2. "Each one the face a moment whiles to me;

Then faded, and to follow them I burn'd
And ached for wings, because I knew the three;
The first was a fair Maid, and Love her name;
The second was Ambition, pale of cheek,
And ever watchful with fatiguèd eye;
The last, whom I love more, the more of blame
Is heap'd upon her, maiden most unmeek,—
I knew to be my demon Poesy."

3. "Darkling I listen; and, for many a time

I have been half in love with easeful Death,
Call'd him soft names in many a mused rhyme,
To take into the air my quiet breath;
Now more than ever seems it rich to die,
To cease upon the midnight with no pain,
While thou art pouring forth thy soul abroad
In such an ecstasy!"

4. "Ah, happy, happy boughs! that cannot shed

Your leaves, nor ever bid the Spring adieu;
And, happy melodist, unwearied,
For ever piping songs for ever new;
More happy love! more happy, happy love!
For ever warm and still to be enjoy'd,
For ever panting, and for ever young;
All breathing human passion far above,
That leaves a heart high-sorrowful and cloy'd,
A burning forehead, and a parching tongue."

Q. Which of the given statements are correct about the form and characteristics of Shakespearean Sonnets?

- A: The sonnet is a form of poetry.
- B: The Shakespearean sonnet contains three quatrains and a final couplet.
- C: The final rhyming couplet often sums up the ideas presented in the quatrains with a surprising twist in thought.
- D: Shakespearean sonnets are addressed to a variety of people including the nobles and commoners.
- E: The first 17 sonnets for example seem to be addressed to a fair youth, an aristocratic young man, imploring him to get married and have children.
- F: Towards the end of the series there are 28 sonnets addressed to a woman. Far from idealising a perfect woman, they feature a female lover accused of making the poet sexually obsessed, furiously jealous of cheating on him, stealing away his boyfriend and giving him a dose of the clap. No one knows the identity of the 'Dark Lady'.
- G: Shakespearean sonnets are written in Iambic Pentameter.

Q. Select the statements which are true about Nathaniel Hawthorne's 'The Scarlet Letter'.

- A: The style of The Scarlet Letter is ornate and subtle, characterised by long, intricate sentences, suggesting that the path to truth is twisted and complicated.
- B: The Dimmesdale narrative is quite in keeping with the oldest and most fully authorized principles in the Christian thought.
- C: The book doesn't explore themes of legalism, sin and guilt.
- D: Hawthorne describes a space between materialism and dreaminess that he calls a neutral territory, somewhere between the real world and the fairy land, where the actual and the imaginary may meet, and each imbues itself with the nature of the other.
- E: Another theme is the extreme legalism of the puritans and how Prynne chose not to conform to their rules and beliefs.
- F: The Scarlet Letter is a novel which talks about a rich girl.

Q. Consider the following statements about the short story "A Cup of Tea" to 3 select the correct option.

A. The little enamel box is a symbol paralleled in the incident of Rosemary's adventure of helping Mrs. Smith.

B. The pale enamel box caught Rosemary's fancy for a few moments just like the idea of helping Ms. Smith have a better chance at life. But seeing that the little box may cost her more than she expected, she asked it to be kept safe for her. Unlike the box, when she noticed that helping Ms. Smith may cost her her husband's attention, she abandons the desire to keep her safe. The value of the life of a living soul is replaced with the value of the little box, possessing which was Rosemary's new adventure, and it won't cost her dearly.

Q. Select the statements which are true about the symbols and imagery in 'The Scarlet Letter'.

- A: Contains a number of religious and historic allusions.
- B: Throughout the work, the nature images contrast with the stark darkness of the puritans and their systems.
- C: A rose 'bush's beauty forms a striking contrast to all that surrounds it.
- D: The beautifully embroidered scarlet 'A' is held out in part as an invitation to find 'some sweet moral blossom' in the ensuing, tragic tale. Letter 'A' is a representation of Hester's sin and adultery.
- E: Pearl is not the embodiment of her parents' sin and passion.
- F: Dimmesdale's name contains the root word 'dim', which doesn't evoke faintness, weakness, and gloom and doesn't represent Dimmesdale's constant state since the commission of his sin.
- G: The meteor is a sign of God. God is revealing Dimmesdale's sin to everyone, and Dimmesdale is ridden with guilt.
- H: The scaffold symbolises shame, and the revelation of sin and guilt.
